A Simple Way To Reduce Freckles

(From The Home Maker) Bear in mind that wrinkles, as well as bagginess of cheek or chin, are fine to the muscular tissue losing its strength and shrinking. The skin is then too large in area to fit such tissue smoothly. It wrinkles or sags.

To remedy this condition there's nothing so effective, so quick-acting, an a simple wash lotion you can easily make at home. Get an ounce of powdered saxolite at your druggists, and half a pint witch hazel, mix the two and bathe your face in the liquid. This treatment at once tightens the skin and solidifies the underlying tissue—which of course smoothes out the lines and draws in the sagging skin. It also stimulates circulation, bringing Bear in mind that wrinkles, as well It also stimulates circulation, bringing natural color to faded cheeks.

DIES FROM INJURIES.

David Johnson, 23, Former Baltic Baker, Walked on Track Late Saturday Evening.

Saturday evening David Johnson, aged 23, a baker for Mullen & St. Onge, was struck by freight train A. H. No. 2 from East Hartford to Worcester, between the Milk and Jackson street crossings on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad here, and sustained an injury to his oack and the loss of his left leg below the knee, from the results of which he died Sunday morning about 3 o'clock, at St. Joseph's hospital.

The accident occurred at 10.20 o'clock as the freight train was backing down to hook on to four cars. The ing down to hook on to four cars. The train was traveling at about three miles an hour and Conductor Lilley shouted as he saw the man coming shouted as he saw the man coming toward the train between the tracks. Johnson evidently paid no heed, for a moment later the train picked him. Johnson was on his way home with a bundle under his arm. He was taken to the hespital immediately and given all attention possible. He sustained such loss of blood he was unable to withstand it. Johnson lived at 22 Milk street, and had been employed as a baker here for a little over a year, coming here from Baltic, where he had been employed. He was unmarried, and is survived by a sister and brother living in Sweden and three other brothers, Carl of Wetherstield and Albert and Emil Johnson of Manchester. Elmore & Shepard are in charge of arrangements for the funeral.

Installing Big Boiler. The Windham Silk company is making changes in the boller plant. Workmen are tearing down the casings around the two old tubular boilers that have done service since the mill was crected in 1887, and which will be replaced by an up to date 150 horse-power bigelow boiler, to be in posi-tion November I. The old boilers will be used until the changes are com-pleted and the shift from the old to the new will be but a matter of a few hours when the new equipment is one installed.

The wagon was a wreck and the harness badly damaged, but the woman and baby escaped with a few superficial injuries and the horse was not hurt. The woman, who was Mrs. Albert Galob, went to police head-quarters, and was told to go to the hospital in order that it might be determined whether she or the babe was termined whether she or the babe was seriously injured. She was able to walk and after being fixed up walked with the child in her arms to her home in Columbia Saturday evening. This fact was reported to the police by the woman's husband Sunday when he came for his horse, that had been sta-bled by Officer Allan McArthur Sat-urday evening.
